

PRESS RELEASE

November 18, 2011

Concerts at First presents JOY TO THE MODERN WORLD with the Portland Gay Men's Chorus on Sunday, December 4th at 4 p.m. at First United Methodist Church, 1376 Olive Street, Eugene. Come check the digital halls! PGMC opens their 32nd season with a true 21st century show – a new-fashioned wonder that shines a holiday spotlight on the global community, contemporary classics, and technology. A unique holiday tradition for the entire modern family.

Free Admission. Please bring canned food to be donated to Food for Lane County; an offering will be received in support of Food for Lane County and Reconciling Ministries.

The chorus of 120 members is directed by Bob Mensel and uses music as a medium to address philosophical and social barriers. Known for its musical excellence as well as its outreach, the Portland Gay Men's Chorus has commissioned over 40 new choral works and has produced several recordings.

For further information please visit the Portland Gay Men's Chorus website at www.pdxgmc.org

Contact person:
Julia Brown 345-8764 ext 16
Julia@eugenefumc.org

Portland Gay Men's Chorus

Modern Joy to the World

Sunday, December 4 | 4:00pm
First United Methodist Church
1376 Olive Street, Eugene, OR

Come deck the digital halls! PGMC opens our 32nd season with a true 21st century show - a new-fashioned wonder that shines a holiday spotlight on the global community, contemporary classics, and technology. A unique holiday tradition for the entire modern family.

Presented by Concerts at First

Admission is free, but a goodwill offering and food donations will be taken in support of Food for Lane County and Reconciling Congregations.

Call 541-345-8764 for further information.